

STEAM Questions

1. In 1855 James Whistler moved from the United States to Europe. At that time wind powered sailing ships were replaced by ships powered by what source of energy?
2. Compare the amount of time it would take to cross a large body of water the size of the Atlantic Ocean if you traveled by each type of powered ship noted in question 1.
3. Water is a chemical compound. What does H₂O represent?
4. Today what type of transportation is most frequently used to cross the Atlantic Ocean? What type of energy does it use?
5. Name three different forms or states water can take depending on the temperature and pressure applied to the sample of water.

