

STEAM Questions

1. Almost everyone has played with crayons. What are crayons made from? This substance may be derived from multiple sources. Name 3 sources.

2. This painting is of a beautiful young lady with curls. Humans typically have either straight or curly hair. Some have wavy hair or a little of both curly and straight. The degree to which your hair is curly is based on inherited genetic traits. Based on scientific research which type of hair is genetically dominant and genetically recessive?

3. Locate the Caribbean area on an Earth globe or World map. Identify the three countries in the Caribbean area. Name the products each country exports to the rest of the world.

4. How does the human ear convert sound waves allowing the person to detect different sounds? Name the parts of the human ear and their function.

5. The dress worn by the young lady in this beautiful painting is made from a fiber product. It is grown on a plant. What is the most common source for plant fiber? Name the plant. How long have humans cultivated this plant? Where did it originate?

